

THE WINNERS - L. TO R. CHRIS OLIVER AND PAUL FROMM COMPARE SCORES. ART SMITH AT RIGHT, WAS CHAIRMAN OF THE TOURNAMENT.

FROM TEE TO GREEN AND ON THE FAIRWAY

Haloid golf enthusiasts were out in force on June 18th at the Midvale Golf Club to compete in the first golf tournament sponsored by the Recreation Association in several years.

The Haloid Plant's Paul Fromm and Chris Oliver literally set a blistering pace on one of the hottest days of the year. They both carded a low gross of 83.

A red-hot putter enabled Warren Saul of the Patent Dept. to get around in the least number of putts - 28 for a 94 total.

About 50 Haloiders teed off, but because of the heat, a number failed to complete the round. George Swan, Mach. Mfg., showed many of the boys that the old timers can play this game as well as the youngsters.

Other scores were: Clem Leavitt, 89; John Shadders, 90; Don Zillioux, 90; Jerry Walker, 91; Charlie Geist, 95; Bob Benson, 95; Dick Mapother, 96; Bill Thompson, 96; Art Smith, 98.

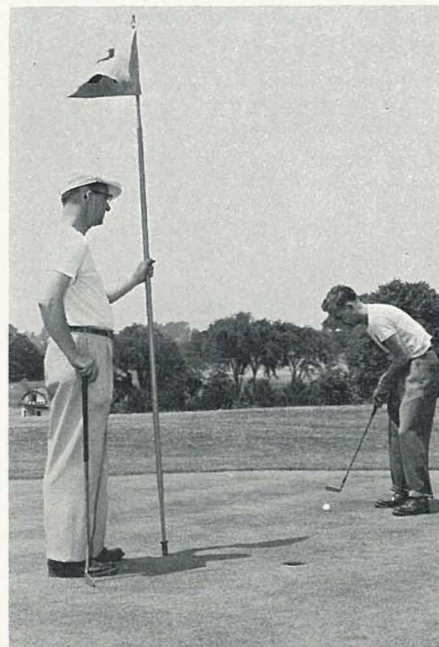

JOE PHILLIPS MARKS CUP AS ART SMITH LINES UP HIS PUTT. DON KIMMEL HAS JUST COMPLETED HIS ROUND.

P. O. BOX 1540
ROCHESTER, NEW YORK

Form 3547 Requested

Sec. 3466 P.L.&R.
U. S. POSTAGE
PAID
Rochester, N. Y.
Permit No. 982

ED SANGER, LEFT, WATCHES AS BILL WILSON PUTTS ON THE 18TH GREEN. BILL SHOWED PLENTY OF CLASS WITH HIS WOOD SHOTS.

Editor: Robert Anzenberger
Asst. Editor: Goldie Jaffe

Rectigraph Reporters: Gloria Isgro (Production); Ed Sanger (Receiving); Arline Schantz (Machine Manufacturing); Olga Simkalo (Research).

Haloid Reporters: Frances Brennan (Advertising); Blan Kirsch (Handling); Ed Maher (Receiving); Pam Klizas (Production Control); Minnie Redeman (Handling).

Avis Street Reporter: Bob Schmidt

Norman Street Reporters: Rose Mary Cira, Lee LaRosa (Warehouse); Joan Lynch (Main Office); Helen Mancuso (Inventory Control); Beverly Reitano (Credit).

Photographers: Anthony Cerasoli, Gene Davis, Roy Froelich